Dear Members,

2019 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

1. Updating the Constitution

You will recall that on several occasions we have sought your approval to amend the constitution of the Foundation. Having encountered another issue, we commissioned a full review.

This review found that it is out of date, does not compare well with contemporary standards, is ambiguous on certain matters and makes compliance with Federal and State legislation on charitable fundraising difficult. Consequently, we have decided to replace it.

The new constitution we are presenting to you is based on a standardised form recommended by the Australian Charities and Not for profit Commission (ACNC), with amendments necessary to retain important historical inclusions kept to an absolute minimum. For example, the purpose and objectives of the Foundation have not been altered.

The proposed constitution is shorter, with a number of matters more aptly addressed in ARLF policies and the Board charter. These documents have also been revised and updated.

Attached is a copy of the proposed constitution and a note summarising the key differences to the current constitution. Should you wish to reference the existing Constitution, you will find it on our web site.

I commend the proposed Constitution to you.

2. Board Composition and Size

When I joined the ARLF board it had grown to 9 directors. I believe 6 is adequate and more efficient providing we identify and recruit the mix of skills we require for the effective governance of the Foundation. With Ian Crook soon to complete his final term we will be at 5, however we have identified two sets of skills and experience we need to strengthen: Finance and Audit, Philanthropy and Fundraising.

You will recall that we sought interest from members and our networks, and I am pleased to say we did find those skills in two new directors, taking us to 7 directors, for the time being.

3. Director Elections

This year we have 6 (of 7) directors seeking election at this meeting. This is unusual and definitely not desirable. To be upfront we made an error with the 2018 AGM in not having two directors whose terms had been completed, Rob Dulhunty and Dr Anna Carr, stand for re-election. I apologise for this occurring. This was an oversight and was addressed shortly after the meeting with both resigning and the Board appointing them to fill the casual vacancies this created. Rob and Anna are now seeking election as directors for a further term.

The proposed constitution will minimise this error occurring again as it requires at least a third of [two] directors, regardless of term, to stand for re-election at each AGM. This is now a relatively standard corporate practice.

Sylvia Admans, with skills and experience in fund raising and philanthropy, and Margaux Beauchamp, with skills and experience in finance and audit, joined the Board recently filled casual vacancies and now seeking election.

Finally, Rick Sawers and I have each now served 3 years and are required therefore to resign at this meeting. Both of us are seeking re-election.

I now attach a notice from the company secretary in accordance with clause 10.4 of our current Constitution.

Yours faithfully

Mike Carroll
Chair

Australian Rural Leaders Foundation Constitution key changes

This table sets out key changes in the proposed constitution. The proposed constitution is based on the ACNC model clauses, with particular clauses from the current constitution included to reflect how the Australian Rural Leaders Foundation currently operates.

Clause	Subject	Explanation
Clause 9.1(c)	Directors as members	Directors will be members for as long as they are directors.
Clause 9.1, 9.2	Members	Categories of members was simplified, and the category of Governor Members has been grandfathered, so no new applicants.
Clause 16	Disciplinary procedures	ARLF has adopted the ACNC dispute resolution procedures.
Clause 17	Disciplining Members	ARLF has adopted the ACNC disciplining members clause.
Clause 18	Members right to call meetings	A group of 10 members or members with at least 5% of votes can call a general meeting. There was no minimum under the old constitution. This clause meets the requirements of the Corporations Act and the ACNC model rules.
Clause 19	Procedure if directors fail to call a meeting	Following on from above, this clause sets out what members do next to call a meeting if directors fail to hold the meeting. This clause also includes a requirement to pay the expenses members incur.
Current clause 20 (f)	Annual General Meeting	We removed the clause specifically stating that special resolutions can be included as business in an AGM. This is addressed by the Corporations Act and does not need to be specifically included here.
Clause 21	Notice of general meeting	This clause provides for expanded options on providing notice such as allowing for notice under 21 days in certain circumstances. These provisions are from the ACNC model.

Clause	Subject	Explanation
Clause 27	Role of Chairperson	Chairperson no longer has a casting vote. The current constitution allows for a casting vote.
Clause 29	Members' motions	This new clause provides for members to propose motions. A group of at least 10 members or members with 5% of votes may propose a resolution.
Clause 39.3, 39.4	Director eligibility	Makes clear that to be eligible you either need to be an existing director or be nominated by board committee and then that recommendation then accepted by the board. Cannot be an employee.
Current clause 39 and new clause 39.3 (c)	Director nominations	The previous clause 39 relating to the nominations process was removed. Director nominations will be made in accordance with policy outside of the constitution as per 39.3.
Clause 40	Election of Chairperson	This clause as amended to refer to the board charter in relation to the term of the chair. .
Clause 41	Term of office and transitional provisions	At least two directors must retire each year. Director terms of three years. Maximum three consecutive terms.
Clause 41.6	Retirement of directors	This clause was revised to allow a three-year break after director retirement to be waived by special resolution.
Clause 44	Delegation of Directors Powers	Adoption the ACNC delegation clauses for simplicity.
Current clause 11.8	Code of conduct	This clause has been removed from the Delegation of Directors' powers. Policies created are binding on members and directors under clause 60.2.
Clause 49	When Directors meet	Adopted the ACNC model terms.

Clause	Subject	Explanation
Current clause 12	Committees	This clause has been removed and replaced with model ACNC clause.
Current clause 14	CEO	CEO clause removed – not in ACNC model.
Current clause 15	Secretary	Adopted ACNC model clause.
Clause 71.3	DGR revocation clause	This clause adds a deductible gift recipient revocation clause. This clause requires that if the company is wound up, surplus gift funds must be given to a similar body. This clause is required as ARLF holds DGR status.
