

Australian Rural Leadership Program – Application questions

Australian
Rural Leadership
Foundation

Please note that these questions are provided for guidance purposes only and are subject to change. For the most up-to-date and detailed questions, please refer to the official application form.

- General demographic questions and contact details
- Employment details
  - Employment sector
  - Industry
  - Organisation
  - Position
  - How does this role contribute to rural, regional and remote Australia?
- Leadership and community impact
  - List community positions and contributions
  - Briefly describe leadership actions you are taking and contributions you are making in your work or community. What are you learning from these leadership actions and what would you like to keep developing?
  - Have you completed any leadership programs or further learning opportunities in the last 3 years?
  - Have you completed an industry capability program or course?
  - Some scholarships have specific requirements. Please select all industries you are directly involved in.
- Motivation and contribution
  - How are you contributing to rural, regional and remote Australia? How do you work with others to make this contribution?
  - How do you invest in your own learning? What sort of learning environments do you prefer?
  - What is your vision for rural, regional and remote communities? And how are you contributing to that now?
  - What is something that might keep you up at night as you consider the future of rural, regional and remote Australia?
  - What happens when you encounter a challenge, and you are unsure how to respond to it?
  - Have you had any experience with coaching, mentoring or peer-to-peer learning and what has been the value for you?
  - What does the selection team need to know about you so that we can ensure this is the program for you?
  - If successful, you will be awarded a $60,500 scholarship to participate in the program. Please explain why you should be awarded this scholarship.
  - Have you applied for the program before?
  - Why are you applying for the program?
- Provide contact details for a referee
- Commitment and/ or health details

- Is there anything you would like to share with us that may impact your ability to participate or engage in the program at times? This could include family responsibilities, work commitments or a health condition.
- Do you have any medical conditions/ disabilities that could preclude you from any activities or that you would require support with to take part in the program?
- Declaration of disclosure.
- Are you interested in being considered for the John B. Foundation Innovation in Agriculture Scholarship? The John B. Foundation Innovation in Agriculture Scholarship is open to ARLP applicants from the agriculture sector. The scholarship will fund the successful applicant's participation. After graduating from the program, the scholarship recipient will be funded to undertake an overseas study tour to further explore and enhance their contribution to innovation in Australian agriculture.
- Provide a short biography (200 words) and headshot.
- Agreement to program sessions, ARLF policies, sponsor expectations and participant contribution.